EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Fred T. Grasso on 10/31/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 10, delete "." And insert --, wherein the mechanism includes a slide that changes the length of the channel through which one string passes when the slide is moved from a first position to a second position. --.

In claim 25, delete "mechanism for moving the string a predetermined first distance and for moving the string a predetermined second distance comprises at least one plunger slidably mounted in the body so that the length of the channel through which the string passes is alterable" and insert -- slide is a plunger --.

In claim 26, line 2, after "second distance" insert --further--. In lines 3-4, delete "further comprising".

In claim 31, line 2, insert -- further --.

In claim 35, line 2, delete "the mechanism".

The prior art fails to disclose or reasonably teach an apparatus for selectively deploying one or more sequentially positioned medical appliances from a portable medical to a target site, the apparatus comprising a mechanism for moving the string a predetermined first distance to deploy a first of the medical appliances and for moving the string a predetermined second distance to deploy a second of the medical appliances, wherein the mechanism includes a slide that changes the length of the channel through which one string passes when the slide is moved from a first position to a second position. Thus the examiner has allowed claims 1, 25-36.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
